Q. 4. What Preachers have died during the last Year?

1. John Crickett; a man of simple manners, tried integrity, and unaffected piety. His talents as a preacher, though not brilliant, were respectable; his ideas often being quite original, his remarks pertinent, his language perspicuous, and his manner impressive. In private life he was cheerful but not trifling, and plain but not vulgar. He was a steady loyalist, even when the French Revolution had unhappily excited in this country a spirit of disaffection; and a sound Methodist, as well as an affectionate and agreeable fellow-traveller, in all the changes of his itinerancy. He laboured during the space of twenty-six years, in various parts of this and the Sister kingdom, with almost universal acceptance, and considerable success. In 1805, being rendered incapable, through affliction, of performing the work of a regular Preacher among us, he became a supernumerary. In December 1806, he was seized with a bad cough. On Sunday the 7th of that month, in the morning, he observed to a friend, that he feared he should not be able to preach, but he said he would try. He preached twice with greater ease than he expected, and much to the satisfaction of his his hearers. On the Friday following, he was much worſe, when a friend aſked whether medical aid ſhould be called in. He replied, "It is of no uſe; I tell you I am going home; my work is done." He was ſoon after deprived of ſpeech; and languiſhed until Sunday the 14th; when he fell aſleep in the Lord.

2. WILLIAM THORESBY; who finiſhed his courſe in the twenty-ſecond year of his itinerancy. It pleaſed the great Head of the Church, to entruſt him with a talent for preaching, which rendered him generally acceptable, and to crown his miniſtry with much viſible ſucceſs. We hope he died in peace.

3. THOMAS PARSONS. Hebden, near Over, a ſmall village in Cheſhire, was the place of his nativity. His Parents, being members of the Church of England, brought him up with a degree of ſtrictneſs in the forms of that church. But tho' he was always externally moral, it does not appear that he knew any thing of the nature or neceſſity of religion, till he was about twenty-three years of age. It was under the miniſtry of the Methodiſt Preachers, when they firſt went to Middlewich, that he diſcovered the inſufficiency of "his own righteouſneſs," and the neceſſity of a better, even "the righteouſneſs which is of God by faith." It was not long before he found the mercy which he ſought; and then, walking in the light of the Lord, and under the influence of divine love, his duty became his delight. He began to travel in our Connexion in the year 1794. It was with great fear and trembling that he firſt entered upon the Work of the Miniſtry; but when thruſt into the vineyard, and convinced that he ought to labour therein, no weather, buſineſs, or company, ever prevented him from being regularly at his place, (excepting once in the Penzance Circuit,) for more than ten years. His integrity, ſtability, and diligence were very great; and he was generally acceptable and uſeful. He manifeſted much of that "charity which thinketh no evil," and poſſeſſed a "meek and quiet ſpirit, which, in the ſight of God, is of great price." Of himſelf, his talents, and his labours, he had the moſt humiliating views, ſincerely accounting himſelf to be the "leaſt of ſaints." He was a pattern of patience. For two years he was under the afflicting hand of God; but was never heard to ſpeak one murmuring word, or expreſs a diſcontented thought. During the laſt week of his life, in particular, his mind was kept tranquil under peculiar ſuffering, ſweetly reſigned in all things to the Divine will, and often refreſhed with a renewed ſenſe of the Divine Favour. He continued to the laſt in this happy frame; uniting in his experience, great humility with unſhaken confidence in the Lord; till on Tueſday, March the 3rd, 1807, "the weary wheels of life ſtood ſtill."

4. LANCELOT HARRISON; who fell aſleep in Jeſus, November 17th, 1806, in the ſecond year of his retirement from public life; after having ſpent 39 years in calling ſinners to repentance. He did not deſiſt from travelling, until imperious neceſſity obliged him; being literally worn out in his great Maſter's ſervice. During the two concluding years of his life, he ſuffered much from paralytic affections, which enfeebled his mental as well as his bodily powers; and expoſed him to many painful and diſtreſſing ſuggeſtions from our adverſary the Devil. But his laſt moments were attended with pleaſing circumſtances. Altho' he was for ſome days before his death deprived of the power of diſtinct articulation, it was highly ſatisfactory to obſerve the perfect tranquillity of his mind in the proſpect of immediate diſſolution. He was paſſive, as clay in the hands of the potter, waiting the good-pleaſure of HIM in whom he had believed; and his whole dependence was on the Redeemer for acceptance and for eternal life.

"I the chief of ſinners am,
But Jeſus died for me,"

was the fixed ſentiment of his mind.

Mr. Har-

Mr. Harrifon always maintained a fair and upright character. No complaint was ever brought againft him, during his long itinerancy. While he had ftrength he was very diligent and laborious; and to the laft his zeal in the Pulpit was uncommon.

5. Thomas Wride; who laboured in the Chriftian Miniftry between thirty and forty years. He was a man of a comprehenfive mind, and an able Preacher; but his fingularities of fpirit and manners prevented him from being fo acceptable and ufeful, as he otherwife might have been. From the teftimony of feveral friends, who vifited him in his laft illnefs, we conclude that he died in peace.

6. James Rogers. He poffeffed a ftrong and vigorous underftanding, and being called at an early age to the Miniftry of the Word, he laboured with confiderable fuccefs, to acquire that knowledge, without which, zeal, even in a good caufe, too frequently goes aftray. His fermons were generally rendered impreffive and ufeful, by found doctrine, fcripturally and zealoufly enforced. His latter days were fpent in a way confiftent with the tenour of his more active life. Being compelled, by multiplied infirmities and afflictions, to retire from the arduous duties of itinerancy, after having travelled thirty-two years, he fettled in Gifborough, in the North-riding of Yorkfhire, within five miles of the place of his nativity. Here he ufually preached twice a week, till he was called to the bofom of his God. An inflammation on his lungs terminated, in ten days from its commencement, his earthly exiftence. He contemplated the approach of death, with that calmnefs and refignation which characterize the genuine faint; and when his afflicted wife obferved to him, feeing him ftruggling for breath, 'This is hard work, my dear;' he replied, as he could get utterance, "Good work, good work, once for all!" Thus prepared, his fpirit took its flight to Paradife, on the 28th of January, 1807.

It

It is worthy of remark, that until the time of his laft illnefs, he rofe every morning at fix o'clock, even through the winter, and in his very debilitated ftate, and devoted an hour to the perufal of the Holy Scriptures.

7. Thomas Dumbleton. He was appointed in the year 1794, to labour in the Weft-Indies. For twelve years he exercifed his Miniftry there with fidelity and fuccefs; and was an inftrument in the hand of God, of turning many of the poor Negroes from darknefs to light, and from the power of Satan to God. During the laft year, he was attacked with the complaint which terminated in his death. He bore his fufferings with the moft heroic fortitude and chriftian patience. When vifited by pious friends, and afked if he had any doubts as to his acceptance; he replied, "that his foul was fixed on the Lord Jefus, and that as to doubts and fears he had not any." To the Phyfician he faid, "Do not you think I am dying?" The Phyfician obferved that he had difplayed fo much patience during his illnefs, that he prefumed he was not afraid to die. He replied, "No, Sir: for me to live is Chrift, and to die is gain." Shortly after his fight failed him, but he ftill poffeffed an unfhaken confidence in the Lord Jefus, until he gave up his foul into the hands of God. He was a plain upright man, of genuine piety, and general ufefulnefs; and his name will be long remembered in the Weft-India Iflands, where he has been a bleffing to thoufands.

8. William Sturgeon. He laboured in Ireland as a Travelling Preacher, with acceptance and fuccefs, till the Irifh Conference recommended him to this Conference as a fuitable Miffionary for the Weft-Indies. His own heart was truly in the work, and therefore he cheerfully and zealoufly acceded to the appointment. In many of the Weft-India Iflands he laboured with fuccefs: but being attacked with a fever at Grenada, he failed for Tortola, where the near relations of his wife refided. On his paſſage, the God whom he loved and ſerved, was pleaſed to arreſt him, and take him to himſelf. Tho' we have but few documents before us concerning our Brother, we doubt not, but from the general tenor of his life and miniſtry, he died in peace, and his ſoul entered into the joy of his Lord.

9. John Darragh. He was early made acquainted with the goſpel of God his Saviour, and travelled nineteen years in our Connexion. His natural temper was amiable, his manners gentle and conciliating, his underſtanding clear in the things of God, and his piety genuine, ſolid and uniform. His death was occaſioned by a fall from his chair, on his journey from Clones to Limerick, whereby his right arm was diſlocated, which terminated in a mortification. Under the moſt extreme ſufferings, he manifeſted a truly chriſtian patience and fortitude, and frequently expreſſed his entire acquieſcence in the iſſue of this painful diſpenſation. Some time before his death, one of our Preachers ſaid to him at Birr, "This is an awful diſpenſation." He replied, "So it is, but I am prepared for its conſequences, whether it end in life or death."

10. William Robertson, a young man poſſeſſed of a good underſtanding, and ſound judgment in the things of God. He endured a complication of diſeaſes with patience, and his laſt days were particularly favoured by ſtrong manifeſtations of the love of God to his ſoul. No gloomy doubt, or tormenting fear, was ſuffered to interrupt his converſe with God. 'There is (ſaid he) a bleſſed reality in religion—O the inexpreſſible ſweetneſs I find in Chriſt—Tell my friends I am gone to heaven;" meaning after his death. A friend aſked him if he felt an increaſe in holineſs; and likewiſe, if he knew the Goſpel of Chriſt was not a cunningly deviſed fable? He replied, "Bleſſed be God, I do feel a very great increaſe in the life of God; I can teſtify that the word of God is not a cunningly deviſed fable. I can give up all; I long to depart, and be with Chriſt." After having travelled nearly ſix years, he died in peace, with a hope full of immortality.

40. In the Sunderland circuit, a private application for Darham.

41. In the ſame circuit, a public collection for Lomley and Uſworth.

N. B. 1. The Conference renews its former order, that no recommendatory Letters nor countenance of any kind, ſhall be given by the Preachers to perſons who attempt to raiſe among our people, private and unauthorized collections for Chapels.

2. It is recommended to the Brethren to complete all their collections for Chapels by the end of February at fartheſt.

Q. 15. Who are the Committee for the enſuing year for guarding our privileges?

A. The Rev. Dr. Coke, George Wolff, Eſq. Chriſtopher Sundius, Eſq. William Marriott, Eſq. Mr. Joſeph Butterworth, Mr. Robert Middleton, Mr. Joſeph Bulmer, Mr. Launcelot Haſlope, Mr. William Jerram, Mr. Tho. Allan:—Thomas Thompſon, Eſq. Thomas Holy, Eſq. of Sheffield, Mr. John Ward, jun. of Durham, Mr. George Lomas of Manchester, and all the Preachers appointed for London.

Q. 16. What further regulations are adopted with reſpect to our Miſſions?

A. 1. No perſon ſhall be employed in any of our Miſſions at home or abroad, who is not deemed perfectly proper to be employed in our regular circuits, when the Conference ſhall ſo determine.

2. The Preachers on trial, who ſhall be ſent on Foreign

Foreign Miſſions, in this or any future year, ſhall be ſubject, with reſpect to marriage, to all the Rules which apply to Preachers on trial in this country; the exemption formerly allowed to our Foreign Miſſionaries being hereby repealed, with reſpect to thoſe who may be hereafter ſent out.

3. The public collections for the Miſſions is to be made, as uſual, in all our congregations; and ſhould be tranſmitted to Mr. Lomas before Chriſtmas.

N. B. 1. The Conference determines that none of our Preachers employed in the Weſt Indies ſhall be at liberty to marry any perſon, who will not previouſly emancipate, in the legal methods, all the ſlaves of whom ſhe may be poſſeſſed: and if any of our brethren there, already married, have, by ſuch marriage, or in any other way, become proprietors of ſlaves, we require thoſe brethren to take immediate and effectual ſteps for their emancipation.

2. The Secretary of our Miſſion Committee in London, is directed to ſend a Copy of this Minute to every Preacher in the Weſt Indies, and to require a report next year of the Manner in which it has been obeyed.

3. A general collection for the Miſſions to be made in all our congregations in the Principality of Wales.

Q. 17. If any Preachers, who have been received upon trial, but not into full connexion, deſiſt from travelling, what method ſhall be purſued concerning them?

A. They ſhall be dropped in perfect ſilence, unleſs they deſiſt for want of health.

Q. 18. Can any improvement be made in our preſent mode of admiſſion into full connexion?

A. After the preſent year, no Preacher, unleſs employed in the Foreign Miſſions, ſhall be entered on our Minutes, as admitted into full connexion with us, without being present at the Conference, and personally examined there. Every Preacher who has travelled four years, shall be at liberty to attend the Conference for this purpose; and if he omit to avail himself of such liberty, he shall be considered as still remaining on trial.

Q. 19. Can any thing more be done, in order to expedite and regulate the business of our Conferences?

A. 1. Let us enforce our existing Rules which enact, that no charge brought by one Preacher against another in the same District, shall be heard in the Conference, unless previously examined at the District Meeting, if the matter alleged in such charge were then in existence; and that all charges shall be previously announced, personally or in writing, to the brother against whom they are directed.

2. It is agreed, that no person shall be allowed to speak more than once on the same subject of debate, except in explanation.

3. In future all the collections shall be paid into the hands of the respective Treasurers on the first day of the Conference; all claims for deficiencies whether ordinary or extraordinary, shall be presented during the first week; and no claim whatever shall be considered or received afterwards.

4. In consequence of this regulation, the Clerks are expected, in future, to bring in their Reports on the Tuesday in the second week.

5. The Treasurer of the Yearly Collection shall retain the sum of £100 annually in his hands till the end of the Conference, for the purpose of meeting any wants of peculiar urgency, which could not be foreseen when the general accounts were presented, and which cannot possibly be postponed to another year.

Q. 20. What is the judgment of the Conference concerning what are called Camp-Meetings?

A. It is our judgment, that even supposing such meetings to be allowable in America, they are highly improper in England, and likely to be productive of conſiderable miſchief. And we diſclaim all connexion with them.

Q. 21. Have our people been ſufficiently cautious reſpecting the permiſſion of ſtrangers to preach to our congregations?

A. We fear not: and we, therefore, again direct, that no ſtranger, from America, or elſewhere, be ſuffered to preach in any of our places, unleſs he come fully accredited; if an Itinerant Preacher, by having his name entered on the Minutes of the Conference of which he is a member; and if a Local Preacher, by a recommendatory Note from his Superintendant.

Q. 22. As it has been ſuggeſted that our Rule reſpecting the excluſion of Barbers, who ſhave or dreſs their cuſtomers on the Lord's day, is not ſufficiently explicit and poſitive, what is the deciſion of the Conference on this important point?

A. Let it be fully underſtood that no ſuch perſon is to be ſuffered to remain in any of our Societies. We charge all our Superintendants to execute this Rule in every place without partiality and without delay.

Q. 23. What additional Reſolution can be paſſed in order to preſerve our Societies from Hereſies and erroneous Doctrines?

A. No perſon ſhall, on any account, be permitted to retain any official ſituation in our Societies, who holds opinions contrary to the total depravity of human nature, the Divinity and Atonement of Chriſt, the Influence and Witneſs of the Holy Spirit, and Chriſtian Holineſs as believed by the Methodiſts.

Q. 24. Can any better mode be pointed out for the ſettlement of our Chapels on the Conference Plan?

A. Let the Copy of a Deed, brought forward by Brother Hare, be immediately printed on a ſeparate ſheet, ſent with the Magazines to every Preacher, and recommended to all whom it may concern.

Q. 25. Is any alteration neceſſary in our Rules reſpecting the ſtationing of the Preachers?

A. In future no Preacher is to return to a circuit where he has before been ſtationed, till he has been abſent from it Eight years.

Q. 26. How can the Conference of the Methodiſt Connexion beſt teſtify the lively intereſt which they in common with the whole Chriſtian world cannot but feel for the ſucceſs of the BRITISH and FOREIGN BIBLE SOCIETY, lately eſtabliſhed in London?

A. Let a public collection be made in all our principal congregations through all the circuits in Great Britain, for the ſupport of that excellent Inſtitution, and tranſmitted to Brother Clarke.

Q. 27. What ſteps can be taken for the more effectual ſupport of Kingſwood-School?

A. Let the next collection in ſupport of that School be made in February next, and every ſubſequent collection not at Midſummer, as heretofore, but in the month of November. To this end let an Addreſs to our Societies and congregations be drawn up, ſtating the preſent circumſtances of the School, and earneſtly requeſting their aid, not only by the public collection, but by private ſubſcriptions in their reſpective circuits. This Letter ſhall be inſerted in the December or January Magazines; and the Monies which may be raiſed, muſt be tranſmitted to Mr. Lomas, in the beginning of March, 1808.

Q. 28. What can be farther done to improve the condition of the ſuperannuated Preachers and Widows in our connection?

A. As it is well known that the whole of the Proviſion which can be afforded by the Fund for the ſupport of the ſuperannuated Preachers and Widows, is not ſufficient to provide them with even the neceſſaries of life, we recommend to the attention of all our opulent friends, a Plan laid before us by Brother Clarke, which we deſire may be publiſhed with as much ſpeed as poſſible, in the Magazine.

Q. 29. When and where ſhall our next Conference be held?

A. At Briſtol, on the laſt Monday in July, 1808.

N. B. I. The

N. B. 1. The Reserved List is left in the hands of the President, at Sheffield; who is fully authorized, after due enquiries, to call out any of the Preachers who are upon that List, in order to fill up in the Circuits or Missions any vacancies which may be caused by death, by desisting from Travelling, or by the rejection of any of the young Preachers, now taken provisionally on trial, by their Quarterly Meetings, or by the examining Superintendants; provided, that such Preachers so called out by the President, receive the approbation of their respective Quarterly Meetings, and pass the examination of three Superintendants.

N. B. 2. Brother Holder is appointed to superintend the whole work in the Isle of Man.

ADDRESSES.

THE ADDRESS FROM THE IRISH TO THE BRITISH CONFERENCE.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren,

GRACE be unto you, and Peace from God our Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ.

The introductory Paragraph to your kind Address, breathes the true Christian Spirit. By reflecting on the happy union expressed therein, our hearts are greatly comforted, and our minds much encouraged to believe, that if we thus continue one in Christ, and diligently use the grace he bestows, the powers of darkness must yield at length, to the influence of divine truth and brotherly love: and we most sincerely join with you, in supplicating him who holds the stars in his right hand, that he would be pleased to strengthen and increase our fellowship one with another.

In

In our former Addreſs we declared our expectation, that we ſhould be bleſt this year, with a more powerful viſitation from the Spirit of the Lord, and thanks be to God, we have not been diſappointed. On various Circuits there has been an ingathering; and what we think of far more importance, many have been turned to the Lord. In ſpeaking of the proſperity of Zion, we would not paſs over in ſilence our beloved Miſſionaries, whoſe labours the Lord remarkably owns. A conſiderable number, through their inſtrumentality, have been brought in the paſt years, from darkneſs to light, and from the power of Satan unto God: and many claſſes have been formed by them, diſtinct from our regular Circuits. Such are the increaſing good effects of the labours of the Miſſionaries. May Almighty God, ſtill uphold them, and proſper their way more and more!

The account of your ſucceſs in the miniſtry, the former year, is aſtoniſhing indeed! and while the news of Zion's welfare fills our hearts with joy, we would offer our grateful acknowledgements to the Lord of the Vineyard. May his Name be ever bleſt. May the ſkies ſtill pour down righteouſneſs upon you, and may your fruit to God, in your lives and labours continually abound.

With regard to doctrines, through grace we can ſay, That we were never more determined to abide by our firſt principles. Principles founded on the ground of truth, and which were propagated with ſo much of the divine approbation, long before many of us were born, by our late venerable Father in Chriſt, the Rev. John Weſley. And being enabled ourſelves alſo, to witneſs their beneficial effects to mankind, we feel it our greateſt ambition, and higheſt honour, to be found diſpenſers of the old Methodiſt Doctrines, which we aſſuredly know to be the doctrines of God our Saviour.

From the fulneſs of our hearts, dear Fathers and Brethren, we again repeat our requeſt, for the return of our greatly beloved, and reſpected friend Dr. Coke as our Preſident for the enſuing Year. We are deeply conſcious, what a bleſſing he is to us, tho' we cannot fully tell how much we are indebted to him You yourſelves muſt know the union of ſoul long ſubſiſting between us: we, therefore, entertain no doubt, but you will moſt gladly comply with our deſire.

The management of our affairs, we have committed to our much eſteemed brother and delegate, the Rev. Adam Averell, whoſe integrity, piety, and zeal are ſo well known to you, that we need ſay nothing in recommendation of him.

And now, dear Fathers and Brethren, with earneſt prayers for God's bleſſing on your Conference and future labours, we conclude this our Addreſs, ſubſcribing ourſelves, DUBLIN, July 9, 1807. } Your truly affectionate Brethren, and fellow Servants in Chriſt.

Signed in behalf of the Conference,

MATTHEW TOBIAS, Secretary.

THE ADDRESS FROM THE BRITISH TO THE IRISH CONFERENCE.

Dearly Beloved Brethren in Chriſt,

CONSIDERING the interchange of Annual Addreſſes betwixt you and us, as teſtimonies of our unfeigned love to each other, we ſtudiouſly avoid the very appearance of vain compliments, being ſatisfied that herein you are like minded with us. The bond of our original union was divine love, ſimple, artleſs, unmixed with worldly motives, and ſuperior to every idea of a national difference.

Our religious principles are ſtill the ſame in their nature and tendency, producing the moſt happy effects even in this life, and leading to a glorious end in that which is to come. Under the benign influence of ſuch principles, principles, we earneſtly deſire that we may be ever preſerved as one body, inhabited by one Spirit, united in heart and intereſt, and actuated by a lively zeal for the promotion of the kingdom and glory of God our Saviour.

With reſpect to the ſtate of our connexion at large, we have, upon the whole, great cauſe for thankfulneſs to the Lord our God. Our numbers, in ſeveral places are greatly increaſed, and in ſome Circuits there has been a bleſſed revival of real religion, nor have we any where cauſe to lament a declenſion.

Yet, while we joy in God who hath wrought ſuch wonders for us, we feel a ſacred check, leſt our returns ſhould not be proportioned to our bleſſings. The various ſnares of an evil world with which we are ſurrounded, excite in us a jealous caution, which, we humbly hope, will ſtir us up to watchfulneſs and prayer, that the grand enemy may never be ſuffered to break in upon our guard, and ſpoil our primitive ſimplicity. Our confidence is ſtrong in the Lord, who having delivered us from all our adverſaries, lo, theſe many years, and who doth deliver us, in him we truſt that he will yet deliver us, yea, that he will make us for his glory a name, and a praiſe, and a memorial in the earth.

In the ſucceſs of the Miſſionaries we greatly rejoice, and congratulate you on the pleaſing proſpect which opens before you. We doubt not, dear Brethren, your zeal in this glorious cauſe, nor ſhall our prayers be wanting in your behalf, that your labours in this bleſſed undertaking may abundantly proſper. Even ſo, Lord Jeſus, Amen!

Our Conference has been numerous, and very many ſubjects have engaged our attention and called forth all our powers, yet, thanks be to God, we have been wonderfully preſerved from the evil one, and are drawing towards a concluſion, in the utmoſt harmony and love, with the pleaſing hope of ſtill increaſing times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord and the glory of his power.

With your request for the return of the Rev. Dr. Coke to be your President, we cheerfully comply, and are not surprized at your desiring to have him, being well acquainted with his worth and with the honour which our Lord puts upon him.

We highly esteem your worthy representative, the Rev. Mr. Averell, and are always glad to see him in our Conference.

To the holy keeping of Him in whom dwelleth the fulness of the Godhead bodily, we commit you, very dear Brethren, and are yours in endless Love. Amen!

Liverpool, Aug. 10, 1807. Signed on behalf of the Conference, J. Barber, President.

The ADDRESS from the BRITISH to the METHODISTS's GENERAL CONFERENCE in AMERICA.

Very Dear Brethren in the Lord,

THE pleasing account you gave us, in your last Address, of the prosperity of religion in the United States, calls on us for the most lively expressions of thankfulness to God, who has so wonderfully displayed his love among you; the more so, as we have heard, by very recent accounts, that the operations of divine Grace are continued with increasing effect on the hearts of thousands in your highly favoured country. May the Lord still prosper his blessed work, till the whole earth is filled with his glory!

While we ascribe all the good that is done, to God alone, as the sole Fountain of light and life, we do not forget the instruments which it pleased him to employ. The names of Asbury and Whatcoat are mentioned in our assemblies with the greatest respect and affection. Mr. Whatcoat, we are informed, is called to his eternal reward. This is, doubtleſs, a very great loſs to you, tho' to him an unſpeakable gain. Yet, you well know, that the glorious Head of the Church, who ſaw good to remove him, can ſupply his place with a Paſtor after his own heart, equally qualified to ſuperintend his mourning flock. The venerable Mr. Aſbury, whoſe praiſe is in all the Churches, is ſtill with you,—a burning and a ſhining light. We never loſe ſight of the zeal he ſhewed for the ſalvation of ſouls, at the hazard of his life, during the war on the Continent, when all others forſook it and fled. To ſpeak our ſentiments on this ſubject might pain his mind; we, therefore, reſtrain ourſelves, being well aſſured that he needs no encomiums of ours to recommend him to you! May his laſt days be crowned with increaſing ſucceſs in his great miniſterial labours!

Reſpecting our union, dear Brethren, we think of no ſeparation from you, ſave the great Atlantic. Our doctrine, and manner of ſpreading the goſpel are the ſame, and we mutually rejoice in each other's welfare. On this principle, we conclude, that you will greatly rejoice to hear of the flouriſhing ſtate of vital godlineſs among us. In this kingdom, ſo long diſtinguiſhed by every privilege congenial to real religion, there has been this year an increaſe of above ſeven thouſand members to our Society, and near a thouſand in Ireland, where the Miſſionaries have been greatly bleſt in their arduous undertaking, particularly in weakening the deſtructive influence of the man of ſin, and, we truſt, in haſtening the total overthrow of idolatry and ſuperſtition.

What you have ſaid concerning our preſent worthy Secretary, the Rev. Dr. Coke, is no matter of wonder to us, who have long known his value, the honour which our Lord has put upon him, and have enjoyed the fruit of his labour. By a vote of our Conference this day, he was requeſted to continue with us, in caſe his engagements with you, which he has repeatedly ſtated to us, ſhould admit of it.

Our

Our Conference has been numerous, and many important subjects have been brought before us, but thanks be to God, we have been graciously preserved from the evil one, and are drawing towards a conclusion in the utmost harmony and love.

That the eternal God may be your refuge, and the everlasting arms be underneath you; and that the good-will of Him who dwelt in the bush may be ever manifested among you, is the earnest prayer of, very dear brethren,

Your's in endless love.

Signed on behalf of the Conference,

J. BARBER, President.
